

Michael Carducci Magical Comedian

Michael Carducci is an award winning magician whose magic has taken him all over the world. For over a decade, Michael was celebrated as the toast of England, performing at all the top corporate and society events in London. After returning to the US in 2006, he quickly established himself as one of the nation's top Magicians.

Michael's interactive magic, comedy and dramatic psychological mind reading represent the culmination of over 15,000 hours of study, rehearsal and performance. His painstaking attention to detail and unique understanding of technique, psychology and human behavior have set him apart from his peers and into a class of his own. You can rest assured that you are booking a skilled professional with love for and dedication to his craft as well as an enduring passion for performing the most entertaining and astonishing magic.

Michael will accept bookings for both private and corporate functions and Michael is equally comfortable performing on stage, at a table or mingling within a crowd. Naturally every event is different; in order for you to get the very most out of your entertainment investment, Michael will work closely with you to fully tailor his services to your needs.

Book Michael for your event and find out what companies like Coca-Cola, Jaguar, Deutsche Bank, HSBC, Deloitte & Touche, KPMG, Cargill Inc, The Boulder Philharmonic Orchestra, American National Bank and many more already know.

For more formal performances, Michael brings all the impact and interaction of close-up magic onto the stage to entertain any audience, large or small.

Michael's unique style of stage magic is strongly influenced by his philosophy of the art of astonishment. Rather than designing a show around a collection of elaborate contraptions that are wheeled on stage, displayed, then wheeled off and replaced with another such device; Michael entertains his audiences--ranging in size from dozens to hundreds of people--by performing impossibilities with everyday and often borrowed objects. Michael's magic focuses less on props and more on audience interaction, skill and showmanship.

Programs can last anywhere from 20 minutes to over an hour depending on your requirements. Michael does not offer any one-size-fits-all packages. From comedy performances to mysterious mentalism demonstrations, each performance is tailored to your group and goals. All of Michael's performances are corporate clean.

Whether you want to make a memorable impression on your clients or you're just looking for a new idea for a company social event, Michael Carducci is the corporate magician for the job. Michael has a wealth of experience performing in the business environment. His act is clean, contemporary and entertaining.
