Men, Women, Marriage, Kids, and Family At Their Laugh-Out-Loud Best!

Everything I Needed To Know I Learned From My WIFE!

Rex Havens takes the very heart of the world around each of us, applies his own unique combination of logic and insanity, and offers it back to his audience in a way that is engaging, thoughtful and hilarious.

Rex Havens has been delighting comedy audiences for 20 years, in world-famous comedy clubs like The Improv, Catch-A-Rising Star, Funny Bones & Zanies, on television for Showtime, Comedy Central & Comic Relief, cruise ships worldwide, and corporate clients including GM, American Express, Texaco, 3M, Coca-Cola, IBM, Toshiba, Lowe's, Johnson & Johnson, Ameritech, Proctor & Gamble, Quaker Oats, Verizon and the I.R.S. ("Working for the I.R.S. is the only sure way to get money from them!") Rex has also performed for numerous non-profit and charitable organizations.

A former college professor (his overjoyed mother cheerfully proclaimed, "There go two graduate degrees down the drain!") who made the unusual transition to the standup comedy stage in the '80's, Rex Havens has always believed laughter is the best defense against a confusing and challenging world. Rex's take on "The Battle of the Sexes" has propelled him to performances around the world, including London, Hong Kong, Amsterdam, Honolulu, Bermuda, Montreal, Barcelona, Copenhagen, Juneau and Aruba.

Ask your agent for a copy of Rex's latest CD, "Not Your Day - A Groom's Guide To The Most Important Day Of Her Life!" It's a comprehensive, laugh-a-minute look at men, women, love and marriage, done with clean, clever humor and tasteful sophistication. Rex's show is suitable for all ages, and he has performed for audiences of 50 people to arenas of 5,000.
