

Rich Natole

Comedian - Impressionist - Emcee

Rich Natole's confident and likeable approach will quickly win over any audience. His repertoire of hundreds of celebrity vocal and singing impressions will impress young and old alike. Avid television and movie buffs will appreciate Rich's pinpoint accuracy of their favorite stars of yesterday and today.

From Larry King to Jay Leno to Robert DeNiro to Joe Pesci to Regis Philbin, Donald Trump, and Dr. Phil, Rich Natole does a multitude of contemporary voices. Political junkies will enjoy his equal opportunity approach to spoofing their favorite (or least favorite) politicians such as, John McCain and Barack Obama. Rich's rendition of The National Anthem - with every President from JFK to George W. Bush is a huge crowd pleaser.

You won't have to stretch your imagination to pick up famous singers belting out their signature songs. From Johnny Mathis to Johnny Cash to Willie Nelson -- Rich Natole captures the voice and the essence of these great performers.

Rich Natole is an experienced emcee/host for special events, with hundreds of shows from awards banquets to corporate game shows.

Rich is the perfect choice - an accomplished entertainer that even the meeting planner or agent can sit back, relax, laugh and enjoy.

Rich Natole was born in the Bronx, New York to first generation Italian- Americans who moved to Redwood City, CA when he was three years old. Rich's early dreams were on the Little League Field- winning the City Championship as an all-star Shortstop.

After discovering an amazing talent for mimicry, the dream shifted to a life-long passion for show biz. Classmates at Sequoia High School soon recognized the funny guy in their midst and Rich Natole - The Class Clown - was asked to do everything from star in the school shows to announce the football games as Howard Cosell.

As a ticket taker at Circle Star Theatre in San Carlos, CA, Rich stood in the wings and learned from the masters-Frank Sinatra, Bill Cosby, Rich Little, Sammy Davis Jr., and George Carlin. Rich's dad, Joe would accompany him at sixteen to his early outings to the San Francisco comedy clubs. His repertoire increased to over 200 celebrity speaking and singing impressions and with a strong theater background from College, he set off to Los Angeles. Rich Natole unpacked and then packed up again to go "On The Road". Rich played every major comedy club in 42 states within just a few years.

He opened for many musical acts including The Four Tops, the Temptations, Pebo Bryson, Roy Clark, and Tom Jones. Rich distinguished himself as a favorite with local radio and television shows for his quick wit, variety of impressions and professional attitude and appearance. Over the years, Rich Natole has appeared on virtually every television comedy show.

When comedy clubs got overwhelmingly "BLUE", Rich found his clean act more in demand for corporate audiences. Rich Natole has built a quality reputation doing corporate shows for over 250 major corporate clients, including Mobil Oil, Unilever, Shell Oil, Coca Cola, Johnson & Johnson and Colgate Palmolive.

Rich Natole has hosted everything from game shows to major corporate award shows. Rich has also provided his talent to many charity events for The American Cancer Society and Muscular Dystrophy.

Rich and his wife Sue live in the entertainment capital of the world, Las Vegas, Nevada. They are the proud parents of two beautiful children, Mickey Andrew and Mia Elizabeth. Both provide Rich with a wealth of material and a ton of laughs every day.