Paul Salos Keeps The Legend of Frank Sinatra Alive!

After seeing Mr. Salos perform at the MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas on America's Got Talent, this reporter rates Paul Salos the best SINATRA singer in the business. He is the most complete copy from the voice to the uncanny mannerism's this reporter has ever seen. The shows I saw had Paul receiving a standing ovation after his incredible presentation of "Fly Me To The Moon" and the song-of-songs, "My Way", which brought the house down and prompted another standing ovation.

Paul had the honor of performing on the same stage that Frank Sinatra performed his final show in; The Garden Arena at The MGM Grand.

I visited with Paul after the show and I asked Paul how he felt knowing that the Garden Arena was Frank's final performance. Paul said he was in awe to be able to perform on the same stage and to sing the same songs that Frank did when he did his final performance.

His performance is dynamic, exciting, entertaining and a wonderful tribute to Remembering The Legend of Frank Sinatra!
