"You were terrific! What a great ending to our leadership training weekend. You truly added a huge hunk of the fun to our theme of "The Power, The Fun and The Responsibility of Leadership"! Honestly, after two days of intense learning, you provided just the closing we were hoping for. I especially liked the way you were able to involve the audience "personalities" by using information from your interviews with them." - Wendy Todd, Director of Programs-IAFP

Create laughter instead of stress if things go wrong

"An award-winning corporate speaker and Emcee with 20 years of solid experience Emceeing Corporate Events, Meetings, Award Banquets, TV Shows, Comedy Shows and Fundraisers."

"Huge Success!"

"As you know this was the first time we tried using a Master of Ceremonies for our entire meeting and from the response I can tell you it was a huge success!

You carried us through the day by jump-starting the group in the morning, using your professional skills to introduce our VIPs and facilitate the questions from the audience and closing the day with your hilarious keynote. Thank you for making me look great!" - Kelli Buchwald, Communications Manager, BellSouth

Hiring the right Master of Ceremonies is one of the most important choices in guaranteeing a successful program and a great Master of Ceremonies can make your event. Don't leave it up to managers who don't have the skills, experience or desire to pull it off. Most of them don't enjoy being in front of an audience in this capacity. Hire someone who loves it!

Jeff's improvisational skills will make sure that any mishaps will become hilarious memories for all. In fact, your attendees will think they we're planned!

This unflappable professional has literally thousands of presentations under his cumber bund and will take charge of your event, assuring that it runs like clockwork.

"Great Job"

"Congratulations and thank you for a great job as the Master of Ceremonies for the AMY Awards. Your humor, good nature and off the cuff remarks made the evening a pleasure for everyone in attendance." - Jon Lee Andersen, President, American Marketing Assn., Atlanta Chapter
